

Change Agents

The My Name My Story Social Entrepreneurship Camp for young change-makers attracted teenagers from across the Valley to the Chaminade Center for Excellence.

Student, Lulu Cerone, Riley Gantt, Amit Dodani

Center Stage

The Alex Theatre celebrated its multi-million dollar expansion with a gala featuring Martin Short.

Harry Hull, Martin Short, Elissa Glickman, Matt Catingub

Matthew Trotter, Riley Voelkel, Martin Short, Tegan Summer, Samantha Stewart

PHOTOGRAPHED BY ROBERT ENASO

On Our Radar

The opening of Riverwalk at Reseda, a 77-unit development by Abode Communities, was celebrated with a ribbon-cutting.

Nancy Sweeney, Councilman Bob Blumenfield, Robin Hughes

WHO WILL YOU BE?

NCJHS raises up new generations of Jewish leaders who create and shape the future.

New Community Jewish High School is a vibrant and academically rigorous school where intellectual imagination and ethical action are inseparable. We seek to shape students into collaborative leaders and respectful, knowledgeable people of character who embrace life in an ethical manner.

In time, each student at NCJHS comes to realize that they can. Once this happens, they do.

Open House for Prospective Families

Sunday, November 9, 2014 at 10:00am

RSVP online at www.ncjhs.org/openhouse

22622 Vanowen Street
West Hills, CA 91307
Phone 818.348.0048
Web www.ncjhs.org

@NCJHS
/NewCommunityJewishHighSchool